Donate Your Bridesmaid Dress

April 9, 2008

There's a new post about DonateMyDress.org on Here Comes The Guide's blog this morning. I personally have a closet full of old party dresses I could get rid of, and I thought other Bees might, too. This is a nationwide thing. All those bridesmaid dresses in the classifieds could be donated to a good cause in time for Prom 08! Nice idea, right?
